

“We may define a scientist as one who during the course of an experiment has perceived something that leads to a further investigation of the profound truths of life and has lifted the veil which hid its fascinating secrets, and who, in the pursuit of this knowledge, has felt so passionate a love for the mysteries of nature that he forgets himself.”

Maria Montessori, The Discovery of the Child, Page 6

LEARN MORE AT MONTESSORI150.ORG

—Pioneering Woman | Global Social Impact—