

“A child is constantly inspecting his surroundings, his “house”; and when a chair is out of place, making the room look disorderly, we can be certain that it will be the smallest children who will notice it. Before a child reaches the age of three, the highest form of work and the most ennobling that engages him is that of arranging furniture and putting things in order, and it is also the one that calls for the greatest activity.”

Maria Montessori, The Discovery of the Child, Page 84

LEARN MORE AT MONTESSORI150.ORG

—Pioneering Woman | Global Social Impact—