

“The teacher's happy task is to show them the path to perfection, furnishing the means and removing the obstacles, beginning with those which she herself is likely to present (for the teacher can be the greatest obstacle of all). If discipline had already arrived our work would hardly be needed; the child's instinct would be a safe enough guide enabling him to deal with every difficulty.

”

Maria Montessori, The Absorbent Mind, Page 240

LEARN MORE AT MONTESSORI150.ORG

—Pioneering Woman | Global Social Impact—